

OTN

Old Timers' News

Journal of the Radio Amateurs Old Timers Club Australia Inc

Number 46

December 2010

Contents

| | | | |
|---|----|---|----|
| RAOTC general information | 2 | Automorse: a rare Australian gem | 26 |
| A few words from the president | 3 | RAOTC members' list | 28 |
| From the editor | 3 | New RAOTC members | 30 |
| From our members | 4 | Silent Keys | 30 |
| Maurie O'Keefe VK3KO, Lancasters, 460 Squadron, and 'G' for George | 5 | Alfred W H Chandler VK3LC (SK) | 31 |
| WWV | 9 | A different sort of radio | 34 |
| The lead acid battery | 9 | Pioneer aviator - Steve Howard VK4BB | 35 |
| 5 metre radio telephony | 10 | Qantas Heritage Museum | 38 |
| The strongest VK ever heard in England | 11 | A spark gap transmitter - a relic of the past | 39 |
| The Eddystone S689 bug | 12 | A German espionage radio | 41 |
| A replica of the Type A Mk III | 13 | The world's first battery? | 43 |
| Ross A Hull VK3JU: Pioneer radio control aero-modeller | 15 | There is no doubt that the day will come . . . | 44 |
| A visit to a famous antenna farm | 18 | Some naval signals | 45 |
| Knocking on history's door: a 1913 Vibroplex double lever bug | 19 | Radio amateurs in my life | 49 |
| Chain Home | 21 | The Hull brothers - a talented family | 50 |
| Whale Head Chain Home radar station | 22 | RAOTC activating the VK100WIA callsign | 52 |
| | | VK100WIA | 52 |
| | | Results RAOTC QSO Party 2010 | 52 |
| | | Was Morse code all that hard? | 53 |